

Attain Signs Lease At Picatinny Technology Innovation Center

Professional Services Company Adds New Location To Support Army Enterprise Systems Integration Program

VIENNA, VA – May 12, 2011 – Attain, LLC, a leading public sector professional services company, today announced that it has signed a five-year lease at Picatinny Technology Innovation Center, Picatinny Arsenal, NJ, effective May 1, 2011.

Attain will occupy space at the Center, making a team of Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) subject matter experts available onsite at Picatinny Arsenal to support the Army's Enterprise Systems Integration Program (AESIP). The AESIP contract aims to create a single, integrated ERP system across the Department of the Army, streamlining components of the Army's $8 billion ERP landscape.

As a prime contractor on AESIP, Attain will help to enhance the Department of the Army's internal ERP capabilities through its support to the Army's ERP Center of Expertise (COE) at Picatinny Arsenal. Attain also will provide business process automation; applications development; organizational transition; applications testing; operations, maintenance and sustainment, and knowledge transfer services under the AESIP contract.

“Attain's residence at the Picatinny Technology Innovation Center demonstrates our commitment to the AESIP program and to providing stellar service to the U.S. Army,” said Richard Roberts, president of Attain Federal Services. “We are especially pleased to establish a dedicated presence at Picatinny Arsenal, where our people can provide the utmost attention to supporting the needs and objectives of the Army's ERP Center of Expertise.”

Picatinny Technology Center provides a total of 38,000 square feet of office space in five buildings and business support services to companies that are less than three years old; are developing proprietary technology to support or enhance the mission of the US Army; are able to show that the company can be financially successful; and demonstrate potential to benefit from a relationship with the Center.
