Attain Hires Theodore Bosnak To Drive Higher Education Technology Business
Professional Services Company Adds Industry Expert To Higher Education Solutions Team

VIENNA, VA – June 28, 2011 – Attain, LLC, a leading public sector and higher education professional services company, today announced that Theodore Bosnak, former Oracle Corporation Senior Director of Education and Research, has joined Attain as a Director within its Higher Education and Academic Medical Center business segment.

In his new role, Mr. Bosnak's responsibilities will focus on the delivery of Attain's Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) Optimization and Business Analytics solutions and services to clients nationwide. He now reports to John O'Neill, President, Higher Education and Academic Medical Centers, effective June 27.

While at Oracle, Mr. Bosnak spent the last five years leading the company's U.S. Education and Research business unit, driving strategic planning and execution of industry applications and technology solutions for the company's global education and research community. He also led Oracle's Education and Research Board and its Education and Research Customer Strategy Council.

Prior to joining Oracle in 1997, he was Manager of Grants and Contracts Administration at Yale University. A certified public accountant, Mr. Bosnak also was previously a senior accountant at Coopers & Lybrand (now PricewaterhouseCoopers).

"Theo brings more than twenty-five years of leadership in the education and research industry, with significant expertise in university operations and technology solutions," said John O'Neill, President, Higher Education and Academic Medical Centers. "We are thrilled to have such a highly respected thought leader as the newest member of our team and look forward to his continued contributions as an advisor to institutions seeking optimization and return on technology investments."
