

Attain Adds ServiceNow to Corporate Alliance Portfolio

Attain, LLC becomes a ServiceNow Partner

McLean, VA – October 5, 2015 – Attain, LLC, a leading management, technology and strategy consulting firm, announced today that it has become a ServiceNow Solutions and Reseller Partner.

As a ServiceNow Partner, Attain will consult with Federal agency clients to plan, develop, deploy, and operate ServiceNow in support of service management and delivery initiatives. ServiceNow provides service management for every department in the enterprise including IT, human resources, facilities, field service and more, delivered through a 'lights-out, light-speed' enterprise cloud – built to manage everything as a service.

"ServiceNow, through its cloud-based platform, is transforming how enterprise clients deliver and manage a broad portfolio of services," said Attain Federal Services President Manish Agarwal. "Attain is proud to leverage our consulting expertise, and knowledge of technology and service delivery to create extraordinary value for our clients through this partnership."

Attain professionals have been providing transformative management, technology and strategy solutions to the public sector, including government and higher education clients, for more than 20 years. With an exceptional depth and breadth of experience, and a proven track record of implementing new technology solutions for our clients, we are equipped to help clients plan, execute, or enhance ServiceNow deployments and accelerate the time-to-benefit of ServiceNow solutions.

"Attain is proud to add ServiceNow to its portfolio of corporate alliance partners, who represent leading technology vendors and world class solutions," said Attain Chairman and CEO Greg Baroni. "With a track record of proven performance and forward thinking and the partner resources that keep our consultants on the leading edge of technology, we keep our clients ahead of the curve."
